The OGC North American Forum invites you to stop by Oracle's Reston Campus any time during this event to see demonstrations of products that implement OGC geospatial standards in location-enabled Web service applications for DoD, Intelligence Community, and Civil agencies of the Federal Government.

OGC's geospatial standards enable:

- Faster application development, greater flexibility
- Efficient transition to acquisition and deployment
- Cross platform interoperability

Admission is free, but you must register at http://myogc.org/nafregister by September 14, 2012.   Contact: naf.expo@opengeospatial.org.
